

COLOR DECEPTION EXPLOITATION

Having created and critiqued a value and color deception exercise, find one or more examples of this deception in one or more of the following ways:

1. Previous personal work.
2. Personal or 3rd party photos,

Support your findings with clear and unrefutable evidence of one color appearing as two different colors/values, or halations.