

COLOR RELATIONSHIP RECOGNITION

The rules of nature create consistency and harmony in the world around us. When artists try to recreate a natural scene, but fail to ensure that all elements tell a consistent story, they create a “freak” - an impossible scene, with elements that fall out of context.

Find one or more examples of a “freak” in your own past work, or that of another artist.

Describe the evidence that led you to that judgment.