

 Neo-Classic 1780-1864	 Romanticism 1800-1860	 Realism 1830-1864	 Impressionism 1864-1890	 Post-Impressionism 1880-1900	 Futurism 1908-1920	 Cubism 1910-	 Surrealism 1910-
 Baroque 17th-18th Century	Science Dominated						 De Stijl (The Style) 1917-1935
 Mannerism Late 16th Century	<h1>Art History Periods</h1>						 Dada 1918-1933
 High Renaissance 1500 - 1525	If you would like some knowledge of art history and its chronological order, here's one way of learning it quickly and easily.						 Abstract Expressionism 1950-
 Early Renaissance 14th-15th Century	Play a few rounds of matching works of art with this gameboard and you should, within thirty minutes, have the ability to not only recognize the period's name, but to recall its location on the board as well. If, for example, you've played Monopoly, you know the location and color of Park Place without consciously memorizing this information. This gameboard works the same way.						 Pop/Op Art 1960
 Late Gothic 14th-15th Century	Begin by taking a quick lap or two around the board to become familiar with the whole layout. Next, tackle the sample matching below. Finally, match game cards with the gameboard.						 Conceptual 1960-
 Gothic 12th-14th Century	© 1999 Richard Nelson						 Photo-Realism 1970-
 Romanesque 10th-11th Century	Man Dominated		Nature Dominated				 Post-Modernism 1975-
 Early Christ/Byzantine 4th-15th Century	 Roman 1st.-4th Century B.C.	 Greek Hellenistic 399 -1 B.C.	 Greek Classic 450-400 B.C.	 Greek Archaic 6th-5th Century B.C.	 Greek Geometric 8th Century B.C.	 Minoan Aegean 1,500 B.C.	 Egyptian 4,000-300 B.C.	 Paleolithic 10,000 B.C.

Sampling: Match these works with their gameboard periods. Answers are below.

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
1. Early Renaissance. 2. Baroque. 3. Impressionism. 4. Romanesque. 5. Early Christian/Byzantine. 6. Romanesque. 7. Greek Classic.						